Moscow, August 16, O. S.

MAdemoiſelle Oginska, Daughter of the Palatine of Wilna, who had been invited hither by the Czarina, ſet out the 11th Inſtant to return to Poland; Great Civilities have been ſhewn that Lady from this Court during her Stay here, and her Majeſty and Princeſs Elizabeth made her very conſiderable Preſents at her Departure. Yeſterday two Battallions of the Preobrazenky Guards ſet out for Petersbourg.

Berlin, Sept. 18, N. S. On Saturday laſt the Hereditary Prince of Bareith came to Town from his Quarters at Paſſewalck, and the next Day his Highneſs went to Wuſterhauſen, where he will ſpend ſome Time in Hunting with the King. Lieutenant-General Levenvolde, the Czarina's Miniſter to the Emperour, is expected here in a few Days in his Way to Vienna.

Copenhagen, Sept. 18, N. S. The King of Denmark, who comes now and then to Town for a Day or two, generally at thoſe Times makes a Viſit to his Fleet, and leaves ſome Mark of the Satisfaction and Pleaſure he takes in it. The great Work of pulling down the Palace and rebuilding it, ſeems to have been undertaken upon his Majeſty's own Reſolution. M. Haxthauſen, one of the Gentlemen of his Daniſh Majeſty's Bedchamber, ſet out the Day before Yeſterday for Caſſel, being ſent with his Maſter's Compliments to the King of Sweden upon his Majeſty's Arrival in his German Dominions.

Hague, Sept. 25, N. S. The Duke of Lorrain, who goes by the Name of Count de Blamont, arrived here the 23d Inſtant at Night. He came from Antwerp by Water to Rotterdam, in one of the four Yachts which had been ſent from Rotterdam to receive him and his Retinue. It is ſaid he deſigns to go over to England, and that he will probably take his Paſſage in the Yacht which is expected to bring over General Diemar. This Day he was entertained at Dinner, with all his Retinue, and a good Number of Perſons of Quality, by the Earl of Cheſterfield. Yeſterday came Advice from Frieſland of the Death of M. de Goſlinga, a Gentleman eminent for his Abilities and Probity and Services to this State.
